

Frederick Arthur BAILEY

Born: 24th May 1892 in Norwich

Parents: Father: Frederick William Bailey

Mother: Helen Susannah Cooke

Siblings: Dorothea Susannah

George Cecil

Lavinia Helen

Schooling: Barton Turf school from 31st August 1896

Marriage: Maria Yaxley in 1914

Children: George (born 1916)

1901 census: Living in Great Common Barton Turf Father's occupation General Shopkeeper/Village Postmaster

1911 census: Aged 19 and single, living in Barton Turf.

His occupation listed as Shopkeepers Assistant

Death: 21st October 1918, aged 26
Last Barton man to be killed in WW1

Burial: Remembered with honour at Lijssenthoek Military Cemetery (CWCG Casualty 433701)

Military & War service: Driver F A Bailey, 85443
207th Field Company Royal Engineers

Medals: Victory, British

Jan 1st 1918.
To Rev. G. Poole,
Dear Sir

Allow me to Thank you most sincerely for the most welcome parcel of comforts that I received from you on Christmas day. Everything in the parcel comes very acceptable to me, especially at this period of the year.

We are experiencing very seasonable weather just now, sharp frosts & occasional snow storms have been the prevailing feature of the past fortnight & I should like, if it were permissible, to

Thank you letter to John Gough Poole 1st January 1918
207th FCRE, BEF

(Source: John Yaxley)