

Edward RUSSELL-WELLS

- Born: 28th May 1898 in London W1
- Baptised: Not known
- Parents: Sir Sydney Russell-Wells, Cardiac Physician, and Harriet Smith.
m. 16th September 1895, St Pancras London.
They purchased Cottages 99 and 100, Irstead, and in 1908 the present house, Riverside, was built.
- Siblings: Barbara (born 1897)
Hilda (born 1899)
- School: In London
- Occupation: Military 1917, aged 19
No 1 RGA Officer Cadets School, Group 3,
Trowbridge, Wiltshire
After WW1 obtained an engineering degree at Cambridge University he spent much of his working life in India and Pakistan returning home to Irstead for 6 months leave every 3 years.
- Marriage: Sybil Lindeman, 22nd February 1930
Gorleston, Norfolk
- Children: Mary (born 1930)
John (born 1934)

Address: London / Riverside, Irstead
Moved permanently to Irstead in 1924

Military & War Service:

2nd Lieutenant, Royal Artillery, 297 Siege Battery, BEF

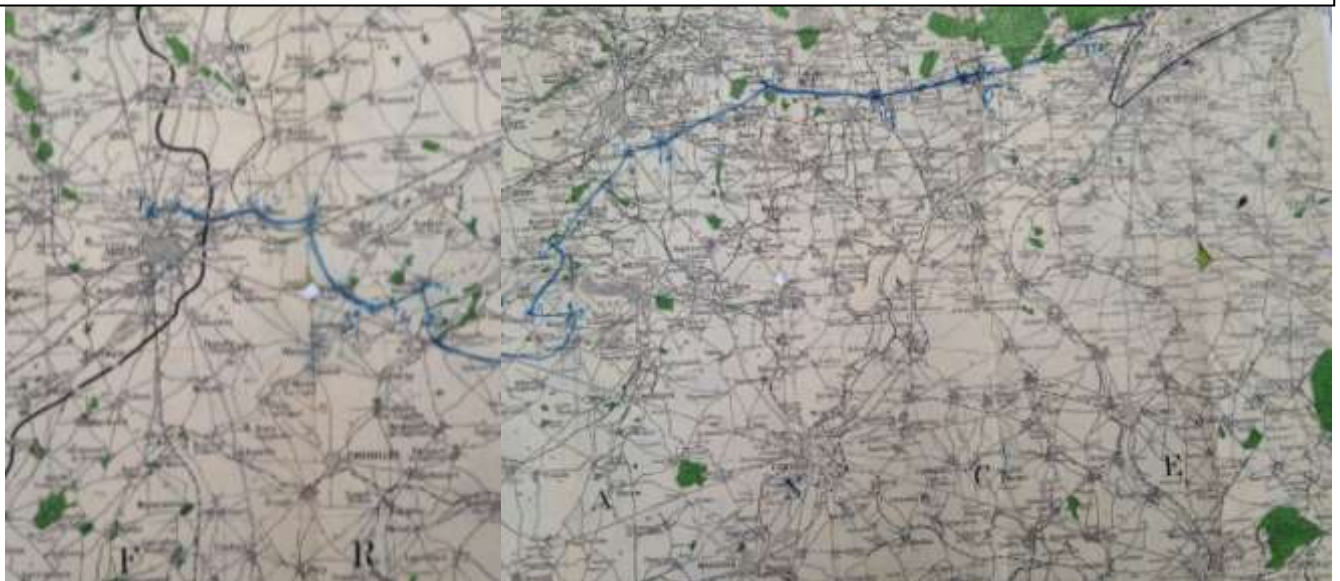

Medals

British and Victory

Military Cross, 21st March 1918,
for gallantry in the field (front and reverse)

Edwards's route tracked from August 1918—8.11.18, in the final stages of the war, from Arras to Valenciennes, Western Front, France.

Death: 11th January 1957, aged 58

Burial: Buried at Irstead Church, 16th January 1957